

ACCT 1310 Principles of Accounting I

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Accounting (B.A., B.S.)
Business Administration (B.A., B.S.)
Business-Sociology (B.S.)
Economics (B.A., B.S.)
International Business (B.A.)
Sport Management (B.S.)

Majors (Adult)

Business Administration (B.S)

Minors

Accounting
Business Administration
Finance

Minors (Adult)

Business Administration

Certificates

Health Care Management

Departments/Programs:

Business (Adult Undergraduate)
Business, Accounting and Economics (Undergraduate)

This is an introduction to the basic accounting model and the framework for developing financial statements. The major focus is on the study of generally accepted accounting principles as they apply to the measurement of income and the presentation of a firm's financial position.

(Normally offered each semester.)