

Course:

POLSC 2400 Legislative Politics

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Political Science (B.A., B.S.)

Minors

Political Science

Departments/Programs:

Political Science

This course examines the functioning of legislatures in the United States, chiefly but not exclusively the U.S. Congress. Legislatures' place in the political system, the forces acting on them, and their impacts on other actors in politics will be examined, as well as the behavior of legislators and the internal structures of legislatures will be considered.

Prerequisite(s): POLSC 1000FYW United States Government and Politics or permission of the instructor or department chair.