Nebraska Wesleyan University

ENG 3210 Chaucer I

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

A course on the work of the poet Geoffrey Chaucer, his London dialect of Middle English, the different genres and subject matter of his major poetry, and that poetry's cultural and literary context. This course is designed in two linked but freestanding two-credit, eight-week courses.
Prerequisite(s): ENG 2000 Introduction to Textual Studies and junior standing

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. English