Nebraska Wesleyan University

ENG 3230 American Transcendentalism

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

This course will study the 19th century Boston- based movement known as American Transcendentalism, a movement that was equal parts literary, philosophical, religious, and reformist. Writers studied will usually include Emerson, Fuller, Hawthorne, Thoreau, Whitman, Melville, and Dickinson.
Prerequisite(s): First Year Writing and junior standing or permission of the instructor.
(Normally offered fall of odd-numbered years.)

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. English