Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 2920 Sport Facility and Event Management

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

A comprehensive course in sport management focusing on specialization areas such as: theories and methods of administration of facilities including facility construction and facility operation. This course will include event management and legal ramifications involved in the operation of facilities.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance