

HIST 4700 Revolutions in Latin America

4 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

History (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

History

A study of the causes, course, and outcomes of several 20th century social revolutions in Latin America. The course will use a comparative perspective, paying particular attention to the transformations that accompanied each stage of revolution. This also counts as an elective for the Modern Language Studies major.