

ENG 2200 Topics in World Literature: Sexualities

4 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

English (B.A.)

Gender Studies (B.A., B.S.)

Language Arts Education (B.A., B.S.)

Minors

Family Studies

Departments/Programs:

English

Each course in the Topics in World Literature group will study a selection of literary works that engage the chosen topic--texts of different genres, from historical eras, and from different cultural traditions. The selected readings will present both abstract principles involved in the topic and its immediate, lived realities.

Prerequisite(s): Any First Year Writing course.

(Normally offered every fall and spring semester.)