CRMJS 3111 Crime and Society

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

This course uses the sociological perspective to consider how deviance, crime, and punishment rate are â??culturally defined, institutionally structured, and socially negotiatedâ?• (Harmann and Uggen 2014:xv). We will consider how socially constructed demographic categories such as race, social class, and gender are experienced differently in relation to society and the criminal justice system within that society. The focus will be on the balance between structured inequality and personal experiences in a complicated post-industrial society such as ours.
Prerequisite(s): CRMJS 1011 Introduction to Criminal Justice and SOC 1111 Introduction to Sociology.
