Nebraska Wesleyan University

MFREN 4430 Francophone Literatures

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

This advanced-level French course serves as an introduction to the literature of the French-speaking world outside of France. Students will read, discuss, and analyze selected texts from one or more of the following regions: Africa, the Caribbean, or Canada. The course will be conducted entirely in French and may be repeated if the area of focus is different.
Prerequisite(s): MFREN 2020 French: Stage 4 or permission of the department chair.

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. Modern Languages