- Credits may be earned as additional hours of language study for Language Concentration, or a second or third language.
- Credit may be earned in courses taught outside the Modern Language Department that support the study of languages and/or cultures. Other courses must be pre-approved by the Department Chair.

Study Abroad Requirement

Students majoring in Modern Language Studies are required to incorporate a study abroad experience of a minimum of one semester (12 credit hours) in the language of their Concentration. In conjunction with the semester abroad, students must also complete either GLST-2010 before studying abroad or GLST-3010 following study abroad, as well as MLANG-3910 during the semester abroad. For information on the many available exchange programs and financial aid and scholarship options, students should talk with the Director of Global Engagement and visit the library of study abroad resources.

Additional Considerations

- Students may choose to complete more than one Language Concentration. In this case, only one Senior Capstone is required.
- Majors preparing to teach a modern language should consult the Education Department.
- In the exceptional circumstance of a student who has already declared a first major in another department with the intent of earning a B.S. degree, a student may submit a petition to the Department of Modern Languages seeking permission to declare a second major in Modern Language Studies for a B.S. degree.
