

THTRE 3840 Playwriting II

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Theatre

A Writing-Instructive course building upon the principles of dramatic construction and devices of playwriting learned in THTRE 1810FYW Playwriting I or THTRE 2810 Playwriting I. Emphasis is given to creative writing exercises, the writing and revision of longer works, and the writing of a research essay. Students will have the opportunity to share writing in class and receive feedback in a supportive workshop environment. Students will assemble a portfolio of their writing, including at least one one-act play, their playwriting research essay, their guided reflections and other work as determined by professor/student conferencing.

Prerequisite(s): THTRE 1810FYW/THTRE 2810 Playwriting I or permission of the instructor.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)
