COMM 1800RS Speaking Reflectively

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

In this thread culmination experience course, students will recognize significant connections among their thread courses, reflect on their experiences in exploring the core questions and learning objectives in those thread courses, and synthesize their answers to those questions as well as additional insights gleaned in their IDS 4800RS course. Students will develop skills necessary to effectively communicate in public, private, and professional settings, and they will present their ideas in a public forum.
Pre or corequisite(s): IDS 4800RS Discursive Reflections and completion of all other Integrative Core requirements.
