ART 4200 Advanced Time-Based Media and Design

Catalog

2017-2018

Course Description

Students in this course develop at least one of the technical skills learned in previous digital media courses to a professional or internship level. They practice methods of reflection, soul searching and nurturing creativity to develop a sustainable, iterative working process, which will be applied during the course to develop one or more works that will become a component of the thesis exhibition. May be repeated for credit. Various levels (1-4) of this studio art medium may meet together. The course requirements of each level are different.
Prerequisite(s): ART 3200 Intermediate Time-Based Media and Design
