Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 4720 Sport Law II

Catalog

2017-2018

Course Description

A course designed to expand students' knowledge of the fundamental aspects of the U.S. legal system as presented through the management context of the sport industry. Legal topics will be integrated with management topics to refresh students' knowledge and understanding of key legal topics as well as delve deeper into the analysis and application of fundamental legal principles. Students will also analyze numerous cases that Students will also analyze numerous cases that highlight relevant legal issues in sport to enhance critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
Prerequisite(s): HHP 3710 Sport Law 1 and Sophomore standing.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance