

Course:

AT 2450 Therapeutic Modalities of Athletic Injuries

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Athletic Training (B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Health and Human Performance

This course is designed to provide an overview of the theory, application, and knowledge of therapeutic modalities. The use of heat, cold, electrical, and other treatments will be explored. Includes one 1-hour lab per week.

Prerequisite(s): Admission to the ATP, AT 2400 Physical Exam of the Lower Extremity, and permission of the instructor.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)