

Course:

ENG 3250 Postmodernism

2 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

English (B.A.)

Departments/Programs:

English

This course will examine the influential artistic and philosophical movement known as postmodernism. Although the main focus will be on literary postmodernism, students will be encouraged to explore the application of postmodern theory to consumer culture, architecture, film, music, and other fields.

Prerequisite(s): First Year Writing and Junior standing or permission of the instructor.

(Normally offered alternate fall semesters.)