

Course:

BUSAD 5120 Decision Sciences

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Certificates

Executive Leadership

Departments/Programs:

Business Administration (Graduate)

This course provides an introduction to the concepts of decision science--the application of quantitative methods to decision making. It provides a foundation for spreadsheet applications and model development. Students will gain technical knowledge and expertise in applying mathematical models and analysis to business problems.