

MATH 1010 Mathematics and Democracy

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Mathematics and Computer Science

A study of various aspects of mathematics pertinent to a democracy including voting methods, logic of argumentation, statistics in the media, and financial mathematics.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)