

Business Administration (M.B.A.)

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) prepares students to analyze problems and develop strategic solutions for their workplace. The MBA focuses on real-world application of business knowledge and skills. The MBA is a 36-hour program that consists of three parts: (1) general knowledge (2) required core and (3) electives selected to meet your goals. In addition, students will participate in the mentoring program designed to enhance networking opportunities.

Departments/Programs:

Business Administration (Graduate)

Master of Business Administration (36 hours)

General Knowledge*	15 hours
ACCT 5010 Accounting for Decision Making	3 hours
