Nebraska Wesleyan University

RELIG 3120 Life and Letters of Paul

Catalog

2020-2021

Course Description

This course will discuss the life and teachings of the apostle Paul and explore how the Pauline legacy that comprises nearly half of the New Testament is received and interpreted. The purpose of this course is to deepen the knowledge of Paul and the Pauline trajectory in the through primary and secondary sources, including non-Christian and contemporary sources.

Prerequisite: 3 credits in Religion or instructor permission.

Archway Curriculum: Essential Connections: Discourse Instructive

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Philosophy and Religion