

ENG 3200 Monsters, Miracles, and Magic in the Literature of Later Medieval England

2 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors
English (B.A.)

Departments/Programs:

English

A course in the literature of the medieval period in England, emphasizing the period's linguistic diversity and focusing on texts featuring situations or characters that in some way transcend ordinary experience.

Prerequisite(s): ENG 2000 Introduction to Textual Studies and junior standing.