Nebraska Wesleyan University

STLF 1010 Success Seminar

Catalog

2020-2021

Course Description

This course is designed to help students achieve greater success in college and in their future lives. Students will develop academic self-efficacy as well as life management skills. Taught in a discussion-oriented environment, this course helps students develop strategies that can improve their academic, professional and personal success.

Normally offered each semester.

Course Hours

1 hour

Departments

1. Student Life - Academic Credit