

HIST 2110 Introduction to Latin America

2 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

History (B.A., B.S.)

History-Social Science Education (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

History

An examination of the Latin American experience with different topics at each offering. Such topics will include: contact period, transnationalism, indigenismo, the colonial era, agrarian movements, social revolutions, neocolonialism, interamerican relations, narcoterrorism and trafficking, for example. This course will be offered on a regular basis, and students could retake the course as the topics shift. No P/F.