Nebraska Wesleyan University

SOCWK 5590 Advanced Integrative Capstone

Catalog

2021-2022

Course Description

In this advanced practice course, students have the opportunity to integrate and apply previous learning (academic and field) through the creation and implementation of a project to demonstrate mastery of knowledge, skills, ethics and values necessary for evidence-based advanced social work practice. This course will provide students with the opportunity to contribute to the knowledge base of the social work profession as well as develop and enhance professional presentation skills through creating and implementing trauma conscious evaluative practices at the individual and organizational level, including a self-evaluation. Students will present their evaluation plan and findings through the creation and delivery of a professional poster presentation.

Prerequisite(s): Completion of all specialized coursework and permission of instructor.
