Departments/Programs:

Communication Studies

The Senior-Level Communication Internship has been developed to provide a culminating experience for the student's major, thus senior status (successful completion of 90 or more credit hours) is required. In addition, it is often the case that a senior-level internship offers amazing career exploration opportunities. The Senior-Level internship should be viewed as seriously as one would a full-time job.

Pass/Fail only.

Prerequisite(s): Senior standing and permission of the internship coordinator or department chair.

(Normally offered each semester and summer.)
