

Course:

MATH 1090 Intermediate Algebra

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Mathematics and Computer Science

A study of properties of real numbers, linear and nonlinear inequalities, factoring, exponents and radicals, linear and polynomial equations, fractional equations, functions and their graphs. Emphasis on mathematical modeling and problem-solving. This course does not fulfill any degree requirements.