

Course:

SPED 3710 Creating Support for Safe Schools

2 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Special Education (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Education (Undergraduate)

This course provides an intensive study of ways that collaborative practice can support children with emotional/behavioral needs.

An emphasis of the course will be on the creation of safe schools through cognitive, behavioral, and social support strategies.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education Program or permission of the department chair.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)