Nebraska Wesleyan University

MSPAN 3600 Introduction to Translation I

Catalog

2023-2024

Course Description

Dual-level course introduces students to Spanish to English translation and provides continued practice with written and spoken Spanish and development of intercultural competence. This course provides frameworks in translation theory, problems, and techniques, with an emphasis on the practice of translation. This course is designed for intermediate- to advanced-level language students and heritage and native speakers. Class will be conducted in both Spanish and English.
Prerequisite(s): Six credits from MSPAN 3000 or 4000 level courses or instructor permission.

Archway Curriculum: Essential Connections: Diversity Instructive: Global Archway Curriculum: Integrative Core: Going Global Thread

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Modern Languages