

Course:

MATH 1000 Mathematics for Liberal Arts

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Mathematics and Computer Science

An investigation of the application of mathematical reasoning and problem solving. Topics may include networks, linear programming, data sampling and analysis, voting systems, game theory, measurement analysis, and coding.
(Normally offered each fall semester.)