Innovation and Entrepreneurship (B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Innovation and Entrepreneurship

This is a course taken as part of the signature work (INNOV-4980:Final Project) done by students at the end of their degree program. Students will acquire fundamental knowledge to establish a startup, business or nonprofit including how to identify necessary financial, legal, and human resources. Students will connect their previous learning in the Archway Curriculum, both in their liberal arts and Innovation and Entrepreneurship major, with the Final Project. They will engage in discourse with other students about their work and prepare for the next stage of their career. No Pass/Fail. Prerequisite: Senior standing and permission of the program chair. Corequisite: INNOV-4980.
