

Course:

POLSC 1010FYW United States Government and Politics

4 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

History-Social Science Education (B.A., B.S.)

Political Science (B.A., B.S.)

Minors

Political Science

Departments/Programs:

Political Science

This course introduces students to government and politics in the United States. Drawing upon historical documents, political science research, and contemporary examples, this course examines the context, processes, institutions, and outcomes of the U.S. political system. Through the development of social science, critical analysis, and effective writing skills, students will be introduced to concepts and theories central to studying political science and understanding the contemporary political environment and politics in the United States.