Nebraska Wesleyan University

ATTR 5530 Applied Research and Statistics in Athletic Training II

Catalog

2025-2026

Course Description

This course is designed to help students advance their understanding of the research process and the rationales for basic behavioral statistics. This class will focus on developing skills to conduct a research study, analyze results, and complete the research paper. Students will prepare an abstract and presentation for a scientific meeting.

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance (Graduate)