Study Abroad
International Studies majors are required to study abroad in a program approved by the Office of Global Engagement and the program director of International Studies. In most instances this will involve at least a semester abroad and 12 or more credit hours, though in consultation with the program director of International Studies, use of summer semester study abroad credits may be approved to fulfill the requirement. Courses taken abroad may count for the International Studies major. The student should consult in advance with the Director of Global Engagement and with the International Studies Director to ensure that course work will be transferable

 Minimum 12 hours of 3000-4000 level work must be completed in major. Make sure to work with advisor to check that all upper-level hours are completed in plan.
