

Course:

EDUC 3280 Methods for Teaching Science in 7-12

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Science Education (B.A., B.S.)

Certification Endorsements

Secondary Education Endorsement

Departments/Programs:

Education

The study and use of teaching methods and models in middle and secondary schools and their application to the learning styles of these age groups. Includes an examination of various science curriculum programs, laboratory safety procedures, and the selection and organization of content and teaching materials.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education Program or permission of the department chair.

(Normally offered every even spring semester.)