THTRE 3300 Acting IV

Catalog

2026-2027

Course Description

This advanced seminar-style acting course examines the techniques and methodologies of one or two established theatre practitioners as determined by the instructor's area of specialization. Students will engage in structured studio exercises to develop technical proficiency before applying these approaches to contextualized scene work. The primary learning goal of the course is to expand students' practical tools for approaching and performing in a range of theatrical styles. This course may be repeated once for credit.
Prerequisite(s): THTRE 1020FYW Script Analysis or THTRE 1030 Script Analysis, THTRE 1300 Acting I, THTRE 1310 Acting II, and THTRE 2300 Acting III or permission of instructor.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)
