

Course:

ENG 2700 Style Workshop

2 hours

Departments/Programs:

English

A workshop on writing style where instruction on content (clarity and grace) alternates with student editing and discussion of classmates' writing. For the purposes of the workshop, students are expected to provide at least two pieces of writing completed for other courses. Prerequisites: First Year Writing