

Course:

ENG 2500 Modes Of Expression: Global Experience

2 hours

Departments/Programs:

English

This class draws on the tools of rhetoric--audience, purpose, modes of discourse, style, etc. as applied to global experience. By engaging with culturally specific texts and exploring a particular international location, students will contextualize their experience with reflection and analysis.