In this course, upper level students in the Arts and Humanities students reflect on their disciplinary learning and plan for their post-baccalaureate lives. This course also helps prepare students for their capstone experience. Course content includes vocational and career exploration activities, reflection on and documentation of the student's skill development in their major, and developing a proposal for the student's capstone project to be completed in ARHUM 4970/4990.

Prerequisite: Junior standing or permission of instructor.
