

HHP 2650 Strength Training and Conditioning for Coaches

(2 hours)

A course designed to provide coaches with solid guidelines for designing strength training and conditioning programs for athletes. The course will cover information on designing year-round programs, proper training technique, and physiological changes associated with training.

(Normally offered each fall semester.)

Source URL: <https://catalog.nebrwesleyan.edu/cc/2017-2018/course/318165>